We will celebrate the accomplishments of 20 men who have completed the twelve-month Staben Center Program which includes transitioning into suitable housing, securing employment and transportation and establishing a savings account.

Our keynote speaker will be Army Major William Lacey, a Waukegan High School graduate.

The Staben Center was designed to provide transitional housing and community enrichment services to homeless men. For more information on the Staben Center Graduation or the Staben Center facilities, please contact Silas Herndon, 847-244-0805
