FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Musical Revue to Aid the Staben House and Staben Center "That's Entertainment – Off Broadway at the Genesee Theater"

On Saturday, May 7th, the men and women of the Staben House and Staben Center along with the 2011 cast of That's Entertainment will take over the Historic Genesee Theater for its upcoming production That's Entertainment – Off Broadway. All proceeds from this musical will benefit the Staben House / Staben Center Transitional House for Families and will welcome talent from all over Lake County. Tickets may be purchased through Saturday, May 7th at the Park Place Center or Waukegan Township Supervisor's Office.

The Staben House / Staben Center were the dream of Waukegan Township CEO and Supervisor Patricia Jones as a way to combat homelessness in Waukegan Township and have provided child care and educational, mentorship, after-care programs, repatriates support and empowerment and so much more. With the help of City, Community and Civic leaders the Staben House / Staben Center has provided a haven for those seeking to start over.

Directed by Robert Presley and Produced by Dianne Daluga and featuring a cast of over 50 of Lake County's finest performers singing Broadway hits. This years musical will feature the elegant red carpet stroll with Lake County's finest debutantes and pageant queens; including Miss Antioch Meghan Oplka, Miss Beach Park Lea Adolphs, Miss Gurnee Danielle Andrews, Miss Mundelein Arianna Dineli, Miss Vernon Hills Kristen One and the full junior and little miss Queen. Red Carpet Stroll starts at 6:00 PM and will have professional keepsake photos for your memory books.

Tickets for the 2011 That's Entertainment – Off Broadway are $20.00 per person and can be purchased at the Park Place Center 414 South Lewis or at the Waukegan Township Supervisor's Office 149 South Genesee Street. For sponsorship or advertisement opportunities, please call 847-244-4900.
